KIDS CHARACTERS

A group of children are dressed in firefighter costumes, including tan jackets with reflective yellow-green stripes and black helmets. They are standing in front of a red brick wall. One child in the center is smiling and adjusting their helmet. Another child to the right is wearing a white face mask. In the background, other children in similar costumes are visible, some crouching down. A white diagonal line runs from the top left towards the bottom right, partially obscuring the scene.
